

TACTICAL TEAM (SWAT) INSTRUCTOR CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

COURSE: Tactical Team Instructor Certification Program (TTICP)
(29 March – 2 April 2010. Course will be held at the SOTT-I LLC Midwest Training Center, Cape Girardeau Missouri and hosted by the Martin Tennessee Police Department)

PURPOSE: To teach selected personnel the skills required to conduct training of personnel relative tactical skills. The course will highlight various methods of instruction, the construction of lesson plans, programs of instruction, and training schedules. In classroom and out of classroom instruction will be addressed as well as a review of the basics of tactical marksmanship and CQB and the training specifics of both. The training will include but not be limited to;

- Introduction to the Tactical Team Instructor
- Training Etiquette
- Program of Instruction (POI) development and construction
- Lesson Plan development and construction
- Tactical Marksmanship Instructor TTPs
- Close Quarters Battle (CQB) Instructor TTPs
- Classroom/Range/Shoot-House Presentation TTPs
- Tactical Safety-Risk Management

PRE-REQUISITES: The TTICP is designed to train the trainer. Attendees should be proficient in their area of expertise and an experienced tactical team member. Students should also possess an ability to impart information to others and have a good working knowledge of teaching in general.

SPECIAL INFORMATION: The TTICP is performance oriented training conducted in a medium risk environment. To successfully complete the course a student must progress through increasingly difficult training requirements. Testing will involve performance oriented "hands-on" application of the skills learned. The TTICP has numerous teaching exercises, classroom lectures/conferences and graded presentations. There are three graded presentations totaling 900 points. An added instructor evaluation of 100 points is also possible. This program is Missouri P.O.S.T. approved.

CLASS SIZE: The course is limited to 30 personnel and will fill quickly. Tuition is $399.00 per student.
